About Our Training

Personnel Security Consultants offers regular training events for tribes and tribal organizations who are trying to comply with federal employment requirements, and those who wish to improve existing programs.

All of our training is conducted by Michele Justice, President/CEO. Mrs. Justice has eight years' experience at the U.S. Department of Energy's Safeguards and Security Central Training Academy where she was the Program Manager for Personnel Security and became a certified instructor. During her tenure with the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) she developed and conducted training for their security and child protection initiatives.
